Nurturing a Spirit of Gratitude This Thanksgiving

Thanksgiving offers a beautiful opportunity to grow in the spiritual habit of gratitude. Research highlights the positive effects gratitude has on emotional and spiritual health—something we can nurture in our homes. Consider choosing a “family gratitude moment” this week: a short prayer, a shared reflection, or writing blessings on slips of paper to keep in a gratitude jar. As we practice noticing God’s gifts, our hearts become more open to His grace.

Blessings for a meaningful and thankful holiday!

“In all circumstances give thanks, for this is the will of God for you in Christ Jesus.” Thessalonians 5:18

Prayer for your Thanksgiving gathering (easy enough for your child(ren) to lead:

God, our Father,

We thank You for the blessings You give us—
for our home, our meals, and the people who love us.

Please bless this food and help us grow in kindness and gratitude.

Amen.
