Most likely, we all have! However, we were never promised that trials would not come our way. Life will bring us obstacles and hard times. But Christians should not hang their heads and give up. Turn to Isaiah 54 : 17. Copy the verse.

42. And now, in your own words, what is Isaiah 54 : 17 saying?

44. Some people think that they are not worthy of God's blessings. The truth is nobody deserves God's blessings! If they could be earned, they would not be blessings. Grace is God's favor, God's power, given to us as a free gift. Grace helps us do things we could not do on our own. The book of Romans talks about the wages of sin being death, but the free gift of God being eternal life. No, we are not worthy of God's blessings. But we can humbly and gratefully accept them. You are blessed to be a blessing to others. What does this mean?

How can you be a blessing to someone this week?

52. If you know your Bible, you will be able to use it to live your life according to how God wants you to live. If you never pick up your Bible, you are doing yourself a great disservice. The Swedish people have a Bible-reading technique. They read the passage and then write down 4 things:

1. The main thing about the passage that stuck with them.
2. Any questions they had about what they read and their best guess at what the answers may be to those questions.
3. How this passage applies to your life, or how it can apply to your life.
4. Write down the name of someone who they are going to share this passage with.

Read John Chapter 14. Try the Swedish technique at looking at this chapter.

1. What's the main thing that stuck with you? Possibly, it is a line that stuck with you. In creative lettering, jot it in this box.

2. Think of 1 question this Chapter brought into your mind. Then write your best guess at the answer.

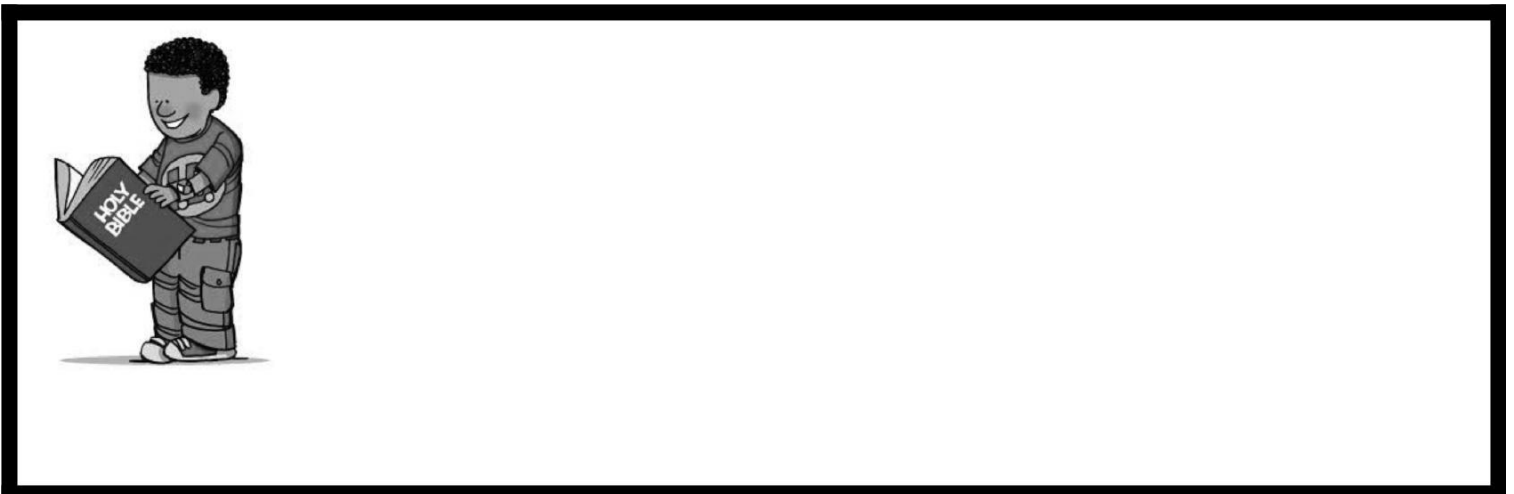

3. How can this chapter apply to your life?

4. Write down the name of someone that you WILL or wish you could share this message with.

5. Now, imagine if you decided that you were going to attempt to do the Swedish method of reading the Bible either every day or a few times in the week. How could it help you?
